I never give up when I have hard times

I never give up on my school

I never give up on my future

I came home to a beautiful bed...

That I can have the best nights of my life in peace

Watching YouTube on my iPad.

When I'm in bed I like to facetime Bluu and Maya because they make my mood change and make me stand out of bed to do something fun.

Like doing our makeup and posting funny things of each other on social media.

how I feel

People make me mad because sometimes I don't agree with something or it could just be my family or brother.

I care about people because they respect me and have what it takes to be my friend.

I know what I'm doing when I like it or when I accomplish something.

I accomplish things when I work hard and want to do it.
Things don't go right I get a bit mad and confused.

Abigail

Untitled

I have time for my life

Hope it does rain a lot

Give me the truth and a chance

I need freedom with power all day long

Happiness is a wheel of time

My secrets are blue and peaceful

The trees are light in the sun

I see a bird in the window right by the sun

Anger is a future in life with staircases in the walls

A painful life come to a kindness life

When I talk, I'm right

I will become bigger as I go

So that I can be humongous.

Sometimes I think
Of things
At the weirdest moment
And I realize
My teacher and friends
Are calling me
And I answer because I don't know what to say
And I am that girl that everyone looks at
With a face
To check what I'm doing
And when I look
He has to say what in this world were you
Thinking of
With the class surrounding me.

Biana

This river
I don't think I remember your name
Do you remember anything
I don't think I know the answer
Do you know anything that happened?
In that little dark house last night

In the rain I was Melting slowly
Slowly into dust
Going to heaven I hope
If I don't know where
I will go to hell

Full of water mostly

A time to have life
Hopeful it will rain today
Personal truth brings happiness by chance
Is freedom the power within me?
Happiness is a wheel of life and power
The color blue is peaceful

The time has come in my life

Hope is the rain

Life is truth and chances are freedom

Power and happiness are the wheels of the car.

The stars are blue and peaceful from the sun

Anger is in the staircase and the pain is the kindness.

What I feel when someone apologizes

When you apologize, I feel like the person knows what they did wrong.

When you apologize, I feel calm.

When you apologize, I feel happy.

When you apologize, I feel less stressed

When you apologize, I don't feel worried anymore because

There's peace and were all happy

Drugs are very addictive

The article I just read was about people dying from these drugs that are very addictive. Some singers and rappers died from this type of drug. I learned that this drug is very common and a lot of people died from it. This article made me feel very sad and I keep asking myself, why would people want to risk their life by doing drugs. This article reminds me of this Jewish rapper that died at 26 years old and his name was Mac Miller.
